College of Health Professions Finds Ardent Supporter in Judy Sims

Judy Sims is the College of Health Professions' biggest cheerleader. An original member of the college's Advisory Board, Sims has been advocating for the college since 2011.

PA Students Give More Than $12,000 to Arkansas Foodbank

60,840 — that's how many meals for children the Physician Assistant Studies (PA) program in the College of Health Professions (CHP) bought for the Arkansas Foodbank with the money they raised from their fifth annual Heroes Against Hunger 5K.

Join Us in Celebrating 50 Years of UAMS Dental Hygiene

In 1969, the UAMS School of Dental Hygiene graduated its inaugural class — the first group of dental hygienists to be educated in Arkansas. Since then, thousands more students have followed in their shoes.

We invite all alumni of the Dental Hygiene program to join us Saturday, Aug. 17, during Alumni Weekend as we celebrate all 50 graduating classes of dental hygienists with a luncheon, an ice cream social, tours of the Dental Hygiene Clinic and plenty of time to reminisce with your former classmates.

For more information, please contact Katy Warren at (501) 686-5734.

Join the Dean's Society

The college's Dean Society was created to provide resources to enhance and strengthen our programs in education, research and service.

As a Dean's Society member, your investment in innovation and excellence will promote our continued success. Students and faculty will benefit in their education, research and service endeavors. Ultimately their professions, patients and health care benefit.

You are invited to join in our college's leadership in health care and health professions education. Your investment in the college will help prepare today's students to become tomorrow's leaders in the allied health professions.

For more information on becoming a Dean's Society member, please contact Deborah Taylor at (501) 686-5731 or TaylorDeborahC@uams.edu.
